

KEPERA TRIO & YORAM LACHISH

LEVANTASY

A COLORFUL MUSICAL JOURNEY - WHERE EAST MEETS WEST

THE BEST OF
10 YEARS JAZZ
Dutch national TV,
Vrije Geluiden.

- ❖ "levantasy is about melodic refinement; poetic, subtle and elegant" (NRC-Handelsblad national Dutch newspaper, May 2011)
- ❖ "Groundbreaking" (Jazzflits.nl, April 2011)
- ❖ "Big respect" (John Zorn, April 2011)
- ❖ "Pure beauty... A gem it is... Very beautiful and compelling" (Parool, Maartje den Breejen, 2011)"
- ❖ "These musicians have internalized the principles of middle eastern music to such an extent, that they need only their western instruments to create an oriental sound" (Ode - American lifestyle magazine, April 2011)
- ❖ "A great night... [Yoram Lachish] one of the few who is capable of ingenious improvisation on the oboe... It was mostly this fantasy rich craftsmanship and the refusal to be branded with any boundaries, which brought this concert to great heights." (Jazzenzo, 2009)
- ❖ "When you hear the music, it becomes clear: Beauty of sound, poetry, and a continuous careful search for new moments of improvisation." (Door Bert Jansma, Den Haag Centraal, 2008)